

JUNCTION GROUPS: Where People Meet in Christ

Based on Central Church's commitment to small group ministry, we hope to expand the number of groups focusing on fellowship, spiritual growth, and study. Maintaining an ongoing, but flexible structure, each group will identify its own particular emphasis and direction, with assistance from church leaders if desired. If you think you might like to be a part of such a group, please complete the form below, or feel free to contact Nan Horstman, 946-9314, nhorstman@charter.net.

I'd like to be a part of a Junction Group.

These are some of the qualities I'm looking for in a group. (Check all that apply.)

- Fellowship
- Bible study
- Study of contemporary Christian theological ideas and issues
- Spiritual development
- Prayer and contemplation
- Support with family and social issues
- Other _____

Preferred day of the week and time (if you have a preference)

I'd particularly like to be in a group with (if you have a preference)

_____. (No need to list everyone in a potential group.)

I'm not ready to commit to being in a Junction Group yet, but am interested in learning more.
