

CELEBRATING HOLY COMMUNION

Communion Prayer

(Based on the Beatitudes from Matthew chapter five)

One: God in Christ, in a world that applauds arrogance, you call us to be meek.

All: In a world that runs from grief you call us to find comfort in you.

One: In a world that rewards competition, you call us to kindness.

All: In a world that teaches aggression, you call us to be peacemakers.

One: In a world that revels in indulgence, you call us to be pure in heart and promise that we will see you.

Here at this table we seek to redefine ourselves, our lives, our values by what you bless. Here we seek to become more like Christ. As we eat this bread we remember Jesus who lived your way to the very end for the rest of us. As we drink from this cup we remember his love poured out for us and your children everywhere. Strengthen us, nourish us, and guide us by your Spirit as experience what Christ has given to liberate us for new life.

Remembering Jesus' Words

Sharing the Bread and Cup