

Glory in the Cross

(sung to the tune "Triduum")

Let us ever glory in the cross of Christ,
our salvation and our hope.
Let us bow in homage to the Lord of Life,
who was broken to make us whole.
There is no greater love, as blessed as this:
to lay down one's life for a friend.
Let us every glory in the cross of Christ
and the triumph of god's great love.

Let us make our journey to the cross of Christ,
who surrendered glory and grace
to become a servant of the great and small,
that all people may know God's face.
Though his birth was divine, he knelt as a slave,
to wash common dust from our feet.
Let us ever glory in the cross of Christ
and the triumph of God's great love.

Let us bring our burdens to the cross of Christ
who has known our sorrow and tears.
In the great compassion of the heart of Christ,
God has walked in our hopes and fears.
He was mocked and betrayed, deserted by friends,
and banished to die among thieves.
Let us ever glory in the cross of Christ
and the triumph of God's great love.

Let us stand together at the cross of Christ
where we see God's boundless love.
We are saints and sinners who are joined by faith
here on earth and heav'n above.
Neither woman nor man, not servant or free,
but one in the yes of the Lord.
Let us ever glory in the cross of Christ
and the triumph of God's great love.
