Keynote Speaker

Keynote title - Guided by Faith

Your values serve as your compass, guiding you towards the life you envision for yourself while keeping you connected to your greater purpose and meaning. Values also serve as a strong, steady foundation when life presents challenges or crisis. This session will share Angie's personal story of how her values guided her through difficult times in her life, empowering her to take risks, while using hope and faith as guiderails.

About Angie

Angie learned how to lead in the United States Marine Corps. She's since shared her experiences through her consulting work at Lead Star, a business she co-owns that designs and delivers training programs to diverse organizations to include Facebook, Google, Best Buy and Wal-Mart. She's the author of Leading from the Front and the New York Times best-selling book SPARK. Angie is an avid athlete and challenge junkie. In addition to running the Boston Marathon and her first Ironman in 2020, she's actively involved in the sporting events of her two boys. Angie is a proud member of Central United Methodist Church.
