Gathering Music “Angels We Have Heard on High” traditional carol featuring the Well Worship Band

Greeting and Announcements by Pastor Rev. Linda Stephan

Passing of the Peace

Call to Worship Rev. Linda Stephan

One: It doesn't matter whether or not you have great faith;
whether or not you are cynical or despairing,
hope-filled or hope-less:
what matters to God is simply that you are here, close to home.
We are entering the time of Advent,
A making ready for Christmas.
Advent reminds us that if God is to be born again
In the most ordinary parts of our world and our lives, we need to prepare for it, close to home, starting today..

ALL: Starting today, may we make the space in our lives where love might be born and awakened in us again, close to home.

One: So we enter the ancient story. Welcome to this tiny corner of a harsh and dark world – then and now.
Together, let us practice being ready in the sturdy hope that God-in-Christ will come. Close to home!

Song for All “Glory (Let there be Peace)” by Matt Maher

Song for All “His Name is Wonderful” by Chris Tomlin & Ed Cash

Lighting the Advent Wreath

One: We dream God's dream, of a world at peace
Where enemies are reconciled, and children play in safety;
Where the poor and powerless find justice.
We remember God's promise of a Ruler of Peace,
Filled with the Spirit of God, of wisdom and understanding,
Of counsel and might, of justice and faithfulness.
We light our first Advent candle, and we pray with all our voices:

ALL: Come Lord Jesus!

Open our lives to the Peace which you come announcing.

May we turn toward you, and get ready!

Scripture Reading Luke 21: 25-36 (The Message Version)

Leader: The Word of God for the People of God. People: Thanks be to God.
