Passing of the Peace

Call to Worship Rev. Chris Lane

One: Mary was at home.

ALL: At peace in her spirit.

One: Hopeful for the love...

ALL: she carried in her womb.

One: Mary was troubled, and bewildered, and willing.

So be it, she said: I am ready.

And the fruit of her womb is Jesus.

ALL: Our spirits rejoice at our Emmanuel.

God is with us!

Song for All "Angels We Have Heard on High" traditional

Song for All "O Come, O Come Emmanuel" traditional

Lighting the Advent Wreath

One: Again, we light the candle of peace.

And today, we pair it with the candle of hope.

Peace is never enough.

We do not long for the sort of peace that comes when justice is delayed.

Instead – we declare that our hope's foundation is...

In care of the earth.

Justice for our neighbors

Liberty for the oppressed

The children of our wombs and of our hearts

And in the voices of those whose stories must be told.

The home we long for is a home of peace – and present, prescient hope.

We light our candles, and we pray with all our voices:

ALL: Come Lord Jesus!
Bring the hope you promise.
Do not delay!
